

Advance Publicity for “Adventures in Turkey”

Turkey stands at the crossroads of the world – the land connection between Europe and Asia which straddles the sea route between the Mediterranean and the Black Sea. In May 2022, my wife and I went on an extensive tour that took us to some of Turkey’s larger cities and smaller towns. Along the way we visited the ancient ruins of Troy and Ephesus, saw whirling dervishes and took an early morning balloon flight to see the sunrise in Cappadocia. We ate fabulous meals, took a Turkish bath, and shopped in Istanbul’s ancient Grand Bazaar. This is the story of what we learned about the people and the ancient and modern sights of this fascinating nation.

Richard Jordan is a former President of the Etobicoke Historical Society and a former Toronto Star local history columnist. His feature articles on historical subjects have also appeared in the Saturday Star and the Sunday Star.

The photos below show some of our Adventures in Turkey – clockwise from top left: Istanbul’s Grand Bazaar, Richard and Maureen, ballooning in Cappadocia, silk rug making and Turkish delights. There are lots of fascinating stories and great pictures along with entertaining personal insights.

